This family history was given to me in 1988. Mrs. Claire E. Goodman was a dear friend of my family. I lived in San Diego, CA and Claire was living in Mexico. He would visit us and stay at our home when he came to the US. We visited him several times at this time, San Dimas, BC

This document is truly a treasure meticulously documented by Laurie Corbitt Goodman, Claire E. Goodman's mother.

It is my hope that this family history will find its way to family members who will appreciate and treasure this family history.

Kind regards

Dear Cathy:

Just a note, as you can see its difficult for me to write. Arrived home A-OK in 3 1/2 hours. Your Xmas card arrived 31 Jan & was mailed.

7 Dec, just 55 days to go 200 miles! A record? Weather here is beautiful, like early summer.

Did you make copies of the Cemetery marriage papers for me? I'm writing to my sister & am going to visit my Aunt when I come up 26 Mar will see you on 25th, Sunday about 1-2 PM, will call before coming up. The diabetes is under control, but there are am nervous (shaky) etc. Hope this finds you all well and happy!

REV. FRANKLIN DIES SUDDENLY

Pastor of San Miguel
Methodist Church
Passes Away

Rev. Joseph F. Franklin, pastor of San Miguel Methodist church, was stricken with heart trouble
Friday night on his way home from a reception given at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Tuley near Estrella.

He was rushed to his home in San Miguel and a physician summoned, but medical aid was unavailing and he passed away about 8 o'clock Saturday morning.

Rev. Franklin had been a sufferer from valvular heart trouble for a number of years and had been under treatment most of that time.

His church here included the churches at San Miguel, Estrella and Shandon. Though he had spent only two months here, he had endeared himself to the hearts of the entire community.

Mrs. Franklin and her daughter Miss Pira will carry on the work where Mr. Franklin left off.

Rev. Franklin came to California from South Dakota, where he had served most efficiently a number of pastorates. Previous to his work in South Dakota, which began in 1900, he served churches in Iowa and Minnesota, and for a time also as a missionary to the Odarta Indians in Wisconsin. He was an unusually devoted pastor; which is shown by the fact that during his brief ministry he built 5 churches, and financed two parsonages. His messages were always profoundly evangelistic in spirit.

When broken in health he went to Oregon, three years ago, and last fall attempted to resume work again in his own conference but was obliged to retire and come to California.

Rev. Franklin was born in Dover, Minnesota, August 10, 1872, and was 64 years of age.

Funeral services were held at the San Miguel church Tuesday morning and were in charge of District Superintendent A. J.
Rutledge and Rev. Paul J. Kline and Rev. H. C. Taylor, pastor of the Methodist church at San Luis Obispo. Dr. Hughes paid a glowing tribute to his life and the life in which the latch string of the heart was always open.
Burial was in the local cemetery.

Death of Tommie Combs

The death of Tommie Combs, twelve-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. J. E. T. Combs, is deeply mourned not only in the intimate circle of the home but in the classroom at school, among his playmates and friends, and by all the people of the community who feel that he was indeed a life of great promise for manly achievement, aided by the Angel of Death while playing baseball with his young companions. Death was instantaneous, there was no pain or suffering, and it is one of the consolations for the bereaved parents and relatives that Tommy has gone to a brighter, better land, and will never need to undergo the trials, sorrows and heartaches of this life. He was a boy among boys, a willing helper in the duties of his home life, yet when playtime came he entered with zest into the school games of his young contemporaries. At this early age he had adopted the teachings of Christ as a guide through life, and was a helpful attendant at church and Sunday School. He was known as a especially bright student in the eighth grade. His teachers and school mates can testify to the sterling qualities which endeared him to those with whom he came in contact. The sorrowing parents and brothers may know and feel the sympathy of the entire community in this, their sore affliction.

James E. T. Combs, Jr., was born on a farm west of Whitling on Dec. 2, 1903, died Sept. 26, 1921, aged 17 years, 9 months and 24 days. His life and school days had been spent in this community sorrowing over his early death in leaving his father and mother, Mr. and Mrs. J. E. T. Combs, four brothers, Jesse, John, Lewis and Raymond, and five half-brothers and sisters, Mrs. Ethel Franklin of Henney, S. D.; Mrs. Laura Heyenson, Geo. M. Combs, Ellis worth Combs and Sam J. Combs, all of whom now reside in California.

Funeral services were held from the Whitling M. E. church, on Wednesday afternoon, conducted by Rev. G. W. Dunn, who was pastor at the time Tommie was admitted to fellowship in the church. The building was packed to its utmost capacity by sorrowing friends of the family; fifty students from his grade in the school with their teachers marched in a body from the schoolhouse to the church. The class had also provided a beautiful floral offering for the casket, and flowers were kept fresh for several days on the vacant desk in the class room. The remains were laid to rest in the Hite cemetery.

standing up with no witnesses,

Aug 2, 1919.

We moved to one of the three houses on the ranch, but sold to Senator Scott of So. Dak. we went on a trip of several weeks to Bath, Arizona, Grouse and Whiting, on the way home, we were snow bound at Mitchell So. Dak. on our way to California. Jimmy Francis with us, but he died very suddenly, and we turned him at Cuerte, in the Black Hills, a most beautiful spot.

Then, John George and a Mr. Stark purchased a 1000 acre stock ranch at Cuerte So. Dak. raised 4000 acres, had 600 head of whiteface cattle, there were three good horses on the ranch. we sold out soon, as Ford was an utter drunk.

John George wanted us to come to Ill. and farm his 2 farms, but ~~that~~ ^{that} he had been ~~dead~~ ^{dead} all his life. as we came to - 58 / Calif.

We arrived in Long Beach at Thanksgiving time.

In Jan. 1920 we moved to Snake Creek and purchased a chicken ranch. In 1930, Fred went to St. Pak.

and was gone 3 and 1/2 years. Clair & I lived at Greenwood's mortuary, two years. as night attendants thru one summer at sunrise, when David was born, then home to the chicken ranch, Dec. 3-32 at 207 Franklin Boulevard, where Fred came home, we rented the house Feb. 1-34 and built over a cottage, where we lived 8 years, then moved back in 1941. to the house, where we are still living. The St. Leo been renamed on Nov. 22, 1937. I fell and broke my knee. Fred and I worked for Clair at the ~~chicken~~ ranch then bought one of the concessions, were very happy near Reeder, W. D. died in this place here as an additional.

Mr. Riedeman was forty-six years of age and enjoying good health when taken by the Grim Reaper's hand. He was always cheerful, kind, considerate, honorable in every way, and a most loving husband and father. His loss is a severe one to the household, and the sincerest sympathy of the entire community is extended them in their terrible affliction.

Funeral services were held at the Opera House this morning (Thursday) at 10 o'clock under the direction of the I. O. O. F., of which he was a member. Rev. Smith of the Presbyterian Church, conducted the services, and the choir rendered a number of beautiful selections. The school and all the business places were closed during the services, as a last token of honor to be rendered to the dead man. The Opera House was filled to its full capacity, and although the day was cold, quite a number went out to the local cemetery where interment was made.

Card of Thanks

We wish to thank the many friends and neighbors who so kindly assisted us during our recent bereavement in the loss of our beloved husband and father, and especially the I. O. O. F. for their kindness and help.

Reddick's obituary

Former Onawa Man
Dies At His Home
At Basin, Wyoming

Sea of sorrow, seas of trial, Bitterest anguish, deepest pain,
Rolling surges of temptation
Sweeping over heart and brain—
They shall never overflow us
For we know his word is true;
All His waves and all His Billows
He will lead us safely through.
Threatened, breakers of destruction,
Doubts insidious undertow,
Shall not sink us, shall not drag us
Out to Ocean depths of woe,
For His promise shall sustain us;
Praise the Lord, whose word is true!
We shall not go down, or under,
For he saith, "Thou passest through."

Funeral services were conducted from the Cheney Mortuary Monday afternoon at 1:30 o'clock July 17th with Rev. Morris L. Bailey, pastor of the First Christian church officiating. Comfort in song was beautifully rendered by Miss Beth Ferris who was accompanied by Mrs. Dorothy Ferris. Burial was made in the Onawa cemetery under the direction of the Cheney Mortuary.

Word was received by Walter Fischer of the death of Wm. Reideman, former Onawa Citizen and business man. Wm. Reideman passed away at his home at Basin, Wyoming on Friday evening, August 30th, 1946, following a stroke which occurred a week before his death. He was 76 years of age and was born in Lincoln township, Monona County, Iowa.

Before going to Wyoming in 1918 he was engaged in the restaurant business in Onawa. He is survived by his wife, Jennie, and one son Gene. He is also a brother in law of Walter Fischer of Castana. Funeral services were held on Monday. Mr. Reideman will be remembered by many of the old time citizens of the county.

GENE RIEDEMAN IS DEAD

When the news was flashed from lip to lip it came as a shock not only to his relatives, but to numerous friends and acquaintances. He was so full of life, he had made so many plans, he was steadily climbing the ladder in his chosen work and he was young, so very young to be taken from his loved ones.

Gene had a nice disposition and characteristics that endeared him to all who knew him. He loved people and nature and sports, fishing was recreation for him and contest games held keen enjoyment whether he won or lost. But his most priceless possessions were in his home. His plans were always for the benefit of his loved ones.

AGED PIONEER DIED THURSDAY

Henry Reide-man, who came to Monona County forty-six years ago, passed away Thursday after long illness.

Henry Reide-man died last Thursday after a long and tedious illness having been confined to his bed for over a year from the effects of a paralytic stroke. He suffered a second stroke a short time ago and had been in an entirely helpless condition from that time until his death.

Funeral services were conducted at the home Sunday at one o'clock, by Rev. W. J. Turner and burial was made at the Hill cemetery near Whiting, where other members of the family are buried. Mr. Reide-man and family having resided on a farm in Lake township for a period of twenty-three years.

Mr. Reide-man was a worthy citizen and a good husband and father. He was aged seventy-eight years, seven months and thirty days.

Relatives here from out of town to attend the funeral were: Mr. and Mrs. Henry Reide-man of Arroyo, Ark., Mr. and Mrs. Henry Baker and son, George, of Sioux, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Walsh of Kennebago, Mr. and Mrs. John Wilson and daughter, Nellie, of Sioux City.

Henry Reide-man was born in Neida, Germany, March 25, 1837 and came to America in 1855, to Portsmouth, Ohio, where he resided until 1869, when he enlisted in the United States navy, serving two years, during which time he saw hardships and took part in several of the important battles. Late in 1862 he was taken sick with typhoid fever, for which he was placed in a hospital in Little Rock, Ark., after which time he was honorably discharged from the service and sent home. He was married Feb. 5, 1865, to Mrs. Louise Weidling, at Portsmouth, Ohio.

To this union were born nine children, W. H. Reide-man and G. C. Reide-man of Onawa, S. D.; Mrs. J. H. Wilson of Sioux City; Mrs. J. F. Hegwood and Sophia Reide-man of Los Angeles, California, and Ethel Reide-man, of Judith Gap, Montana; George Reide-man, who died in 1889 and John, who died in 1900. He came to Monona county in 1863, where he has resided ever since with the exception of five years spent in Kansas.

"FELIX" REIDE-MAN DIED FRIDAY, JULY 14, 1944

WAS A SON OF A PIONEER
LINCOLN TWP. COUPLE—HAD LIVED IN ONAWA
NEARLY 38 YEARS

Funeral held at Cheney Mortuary on Monday afternoon. Rev. Morris L. Bailey, officiating. Burial in Onawa Cemetery.

The death of Clarence Reide-man takes from this community another one of its honored and respected citizens, the son of an early pioneer family, and a man who had spent his entire life in our vicinity.

We gather here today to pay our final respects to his memory and to those who knew him best, this memory will remain a blessing.

"Felix," as the writer of this obituary, and hundreds of his friends knew him by, was a man of clean character and high ideals. Quietly he went about his daily work, though not in the best of health for the past 20 years or more, "Felix" Reide-man never complained. He bore his affliction with great courage; he loved friends and nature, but above all he loved his home and his children, (four girls who have now grown to womanhood) he mothered tenderly, and gave to them through the years of their childhood a home and the affection that only a good, loving, christian father could give.

In return for this kindness and affection, these four daughters, who today mourn the death of him who willingly sacrificed everything that they might live happily, will cherish his memory always, and will stand up and call him blessed.

The parting of loved ones is always sad, but God knows best, and wounds are healed by pleasant memories of the days that have passed.

Gottlieb Clarence Reide-man was born on a farm west of Onawa, in Lincoln township, August 31st, 1876 and passed away at a Sioux City hospital July 14th, 1944. He would have been 68 years of age this coming August. He had been in failing health for a long number of years, but bed-fast only a couple of days.

He was the son of Henry and Louise Reide-man who settled in this county in an early day. Mr. Reide-man was baptized in the Lutheran faith when a small child and was a member of the Onawa German Lutheran church. He was married to Grace Chilson, of Bushnell, South Dakota, in June of 1902.

Four daughters were born to this union. They are: Maple John son, of Onawa; Blanche Carlso of Moorhead, Iowa; Lucille Ar new, of Des Moines, Iowa; and Fern Lettely, of Onawa, Ia.

He is survived by two grant sons, Robert Lettely, of Onawa, Iowa, and Gary Carlson, of Moorhead, and one great grand daughter, Linda Lettely, also of Onawa.

One brother and three sister also survive the deceased. They are W. H. Reide-man, of Basir Wyoming; and Harrie Hegwood and Sophia Field, of Los Angeles, California, and Anna Wilson of Sioux City, Iowa.

He was preceded in death by three brothers and one sister. "When thou passest through the waters—they shall not overflow thee." Isa. 43:2

"When thou passest through the waters—Deep the waves may be an cold."

But Jehovah is our refuge, And his promise is our hold; For the Lord himself hath said, "He, the faithful God, and true—When thou comest to the water Thou shalt not go down, but through."

having left Shakertown, at the age of 18. The following Obituary is a good description of her life.

MRS. L. M. DUBOIS

Died March 17, 1913; Aged 93 Years, 10 Months, 29 Days.

Leah Melvina Pearce, daughter of Robert and Leah (Bartlett) Pearce, was born April 18, 1819, in the northern part of Tennessee, she being the youngest of eleven children. In her infancy, her parents moved to Sangamon county, Ill. Her father was a wheelwright and as to religion they were Quakers, but while on a journey to Tenn., Mr. Pearce was taken sick and cared for by a community of Shakers at Shakertown, Ky. He coming attached to their mode of life, he persuaded his family to move there, which they did when the subject of this sketch was but three years of age.

At the age of 18, she having become dissatisfied with the community life, was taken to Madison county, Ill., by her father, where she lived with her oldest brother for a time and then with her oldest sister Mrs. Anna Pearce, at which place on March 28, 1839, she was united in marriage to John Newton Combs, son of Samuel and Jane Combs.

Mr. and Mrs. Combs resided on a farm near Springfield, Ill., in the fall of 1841, when they moved to Jasper county, Mo., driven there with a team and wagon. After living in Mo. for two and one half years, they returned to Sangamon county, Ill., moving in short time to Menard county, and later to Cass county, where they remained until Dec. 1854, when they again moved to Mo., settling in Clinton county, 25 miles south-east of St. Joseph.

Mr. Combs was a soldier in the war of 1861-65, having bought an 80-acre tract of school land, paid part of it, but the county officials being rebels, refused to grant him a title to the property. Owing to this feeling of hatred toward the unionists, Mr. Combs, for the safety of his family, decided to seek a home in the North. In the spring of 1861, he started on horseback for Dakota Territory as far as Monmouth county, Ia., and being pleased with the country, he rented the Graham farm, in Lake township, North-west of which place on March 28, 1861, he returned to Mo. and the following fall started with his family for their new home, arriving in August 1861. she always clung with hope.

The funeral services were held at the home, being conducted by Rev. G. B. Squires of the M. E. church. The hymns were "Jesus Lover of My Soul," and "Rock of the 14th chapter of John and the 15 chapter of I Cor. At her request, the remains were laid to rest in the Clark cemetery west of Whitins, beside those of her first husband and two daughters. Five grandsons, Wm. Frank and Fred grandson-in-law, were the pall bearers.

She nominally accepted the Baptist faith
but at heart was said to be a Shaker.

Although married and the mother of eleven children, she held that the Shakers were right in their teaching & received the message of her children that led them away. She was a grand person with great strength of character & a personality that influenced others.
